Elementary Cultures & Geography (3rd through 5th grade)

Course Description: Students in this class will travel the world in the comfort of their chairs at coop with friends! We will be exploring recipes, learning interesting facts, geographical information, and simple phrases of the local language. We will get our passport stamped as we travel to visit new places together. We will examine and pray for countries all over the world. Let's get ready to see the World. If time is available, we will also do a small state study on Alabama.

Please send a snack with your child. A supervised recess and snack time will be provided.

Prerequisite: A 3rd grade reading level is required.

Instructor: Mrs. Becky Shirley graduated with her Bachelors of Science from the University of Montevallo in 2004. Afterwards, she worked with the ARC of Shelby County as a Service Coordinator for children birth to age five. She has also worked for the Shelby County Board of Education as a Elementary Paraprofessional. Since being called to homeschool her children, she has taught and tutored various classes. Mrs. Shirley has been married to her husband, Daniel for 13 years. They homeschool their two children in Chelsea, Alabama, where they have happily lived for the past 12 years.
