Elementary History: The Revolutionary War (3rd through 5th grade)

Course Description: The Revolutionary War comes to life for students as they learn about causes of the war, famous patriots, and battles fought. We will have fun cooking like a colonist, playing colonial games, and role playing all while learning character traits as we read about men and women who sought God's guidance during some trying times.

Prerequisite: A 3rd grade reading level is required.

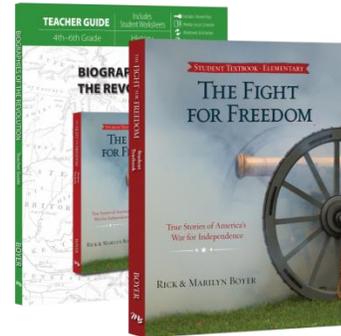

Instructor: Mrs. Becky Shirley graduated with her Bachelors of Science from the University of Montevallo in 2004. Afterwards, she worked with the ARC of Shelby County as a Service Coordinator for children birth to age five. She has also worked for the Shelby County Board of Education as an Elementary Paraprofessional. Since being called to homeschool her children, she has taught and tutored various classes. Mrs. Shirley has been married to her husband, Daniel, for 15 years. They homeschool their two children in Chelsea, Alabama, where they have happily lived for the past 14 years.
